(Department of Expenditure)

(P. & T. Unit)

New Delhi, the 31st December 1966

G.S.R. 41.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 12 of the Government Savings Certificates Act, 1959 (46 of 1959), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the National Savings Certificates (First Issue) Rules, 1965, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the National Savings Certificates (First Issue) (First Amendment) Rules, 1966,

2. In the National Savings Certificates (First Issue) Rules, 1965 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), for rule 5, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“5. Limits upto which certificates may be purchased.—The total maximum amount that may be invested in the certificates issued under these rules and the certificates issued under the Government Savings Certificates Rules, 1965, issued vide Ministry of Finance (Department of Economic Affairs) Notification No. G.S.R. 1889, dated 18th December, 1965, shall be—

(i) for an audit for himself or on behalf of a minor or by a minor. .. Rs. 35,000/-,

(ii) for two adults jointly. .. Rs. 70,000/-.

NOTE.—One half of the joint holding shall be taken to belong to each holder.”

3. In the said rules, in rule 13, after sub-rule (2), the following new sub-rule shall be added, namely:—

“(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-rule (2), an authorised Postmaster shall give his consent to the transfer of a certificate held on behalf of a minor only, if at the time of the proposed transfer, a parent or the guardian referred to in sub-clause (i) or, as the case may be, sub-clause (ii) of clause (b) of section 5 of the Act certifies, in writing, that the minor is alive and that such transfer is in his interest.”

4. In the said rules, in rule 18, for sub-rule (1), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) The holder of a Single Holder Type Certificate referred to in clause (a) of sub-rule (2) of rule 4 may nominate any person who, in the event of his death, shall become entitled to the certificate and to the payment of the amount due thereon, by filling in necessary particulars in Form 1 at the time of purchasing the certificate. If such a holder does not fill the necessary particulars regarding nomination in Form 1 at the time of purchasing the certificate, he may at any time after the purchase of the certificate but before the maturity thereof, make an application in Form 2 to the Postmaster of the office at which the certificate stands registered nominating any person who in the event of his death shall become entitled to the certificate and to the payment of the amount due thereon:

Provided that in the case of certificates of the denomination of ten rupees or one hundred, the holder shall not be entitled to nominate more than one person.”

5. In the said rules, for Form 1, the following Form shall be substituted, namely:—

New Delhi, the 4th January 1967

G.S.R. 44.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 27 of the Khadi and Village Industries Commission Act, 1956, (61 of 1956), the Commission hereby makes, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, the following amendment to the Khadi and Village Industries Commission Regulations, 1958, published with the notification of the Government of India in the late Ministry of Commerce and Industry GSR No. 801, dated the 5th September, 1958 namely:—

In the Khadi and Village Industries Commission Regulations, 1958, for sub-regulation (3) of regulation 5, the following sub-regulation shall be substituted, namely:—

“(3) (a) Except as otherwise provided in this sub-regulation, every employee of the Commission (other than an honorary worker or a Government servant) shall retire on the day he attains the age of fifty-eight years.

(b) An employee of the Commission in Class IV service or post shall retire on the day he attains the age of sixty years.

(c) An employee of the Commission retiring on attainment of the age of fifty-eight years as provided in clause (a) may, in the interests of the Commission and for reasons to be recorded in writing—

(i) be granted extension of service; or

(ii) be re-employed in service on contract basis on such terms and conditions as may be decided by the Commission under a resolution passed in that behalf:

Provided that the period of such extension of service or re-employment shall not exceed one year at a time:

Provided further that no such employee shall be granted any extension of service or re-employed in service after he attains the age of sixty years, except in very special circumstances to be recorded in writing.

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses (a) and (b),—

(i) the Commission may at any time require any employee who has attained the age of fifty-five years to retire, by giving such employee notice of not less than three months, in writing, without assigning any reason:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to an employee of the Commission in Class IV service or post who entered the service of the Commission on or before the 4th January, 1967.

(ii) any employee of the Commission may at any time after attaining the age of fifty-five years voluntarily retire after giving three months' notice in writing to the Commission:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to an employee of the Commission in Class IV service or post who entered the service of the Commission on or before the 4th January, 1967:

Provided further that it shall be open to the Commission to withhold permission to an employee under suspension who seeks to retire under this clause.

- (e) The Commission may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, make a fresh appointment of any person who has attained the age of fifty-eight years for a period not exceeding one year at a time."

L. D. HINDI, Under Secy.

New Delhi, the 5th January 1967

G.S.R. 47.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 18 of the Central Reserve Police Force Act, 1949 (66 of 1949), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Central Reserve Police Force Rules, 1955, namely:—

1. (1) These rules may be called the Central Reserve Police Force (Amendment) Rules, 1967.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Central Reserve Police Force Rules, 1955:—

(A) in rule 27,

(1) for sub-rule (a), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(a) The punishments shown as items 1 to 9 in column 2 of the table below may be inflicted on non-gazetted officers and men of the various ranks shown in each of the headings of columns 3 to 6, by the authorities named below such headings under the conditions mentioned in column 7.

MERCHANT SHIPPING

New Delhi, the 6th January 1967

G.S.R. 61.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 175 read with section 457 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (44 of 1958), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Merchant Shipping (Crew Accommodation) Rule, 1960, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (1) of section 175 of the said Act, namely:—

Rules

1. These rules may be called the Merchant Shipping (Crew Accommodation) Amendment Rules, 1966.

2. In the Merchant Shipping (Crew Accommodation) Rules, 1960 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), for the figures and words mentioned in column (3) of the Schedule hereto annexed and occurring in the rule specified in the corresponding entry in column (2) of the said Schedule, the figures and words mentioned in the corresponding entry in column (4) of the said Schedule shall be substituted.

3. In rule 4, of the said rules, after sub-rule (3), the following sub-rule shall be inserted, namely:

“(4) The sum of the unobstructed horizontal distances with three times the vertical distances involved in travelling from any radio officer's sleeping room to the radio office shall not exceed fiftyfive meters”.

4. For clause (a) of sub-rule (2) of rule 12 of the said rules, the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(a) Every enclosed space forming part of the crew accommodation of a ship to which these rules apply being a space not fully air-conditioned or not ventilated by a trunked mechanical ventilation system shall be provided with a natural system of inlet and exhaust ventilation. Every inlet ventilator situated in the open air shall be of a cowl or other equally efficient type and shall be so situated that, as far as practicable, it is not screened from the wind in any direction. No such ventilator shall be situated directly over a doorway, stairway, exhaust opening or a bunk. If the enclosed space is fully air-conditioned, the means of air-conditioning shall be of sufficient capacity to maintain 30° centigrade with 50 per cent relative humidity when the ambient conditions are 32° centigrade with 78 per cent relative humidity”.

5. For sub-rule (5) of rule 17 of the said rules, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(5) No bed shall be placed:—

- (a) within 10.2 centimetres of ventilation trunk which may be used for circulating hot air; or
- (b) within 5.10 centimetres of a bulkhead of the ship's side, unless the bed is so supported and the room so constructed as to avoid harbouring dirt and vermin in or near the bed, to enable the bedding to be kept clean and dry and to minimise the soiling of paintwork in way of the bed; or
- (c) below any joint in an overhead water pipe or sanitary discharge”.

6. For sub-rule (7) of rule 18 of the said rules, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(7) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this rule, all lockers, wardrobes, tables, desks, the un-upholstered parts of chairs and settees and similar furnishings provided in compliance with this rule shall be made of polished hardwood, rustproof metal or other smooth and impervious material not likely to crack, warp or become corroded. All furniture provided in sleeping rooms shall be so made as not to be likely to harbour vermin and any furniture installed under beds shall be readily removable for cleaning purposes”.

7. For sub-rule (7) of rule 31 of the said rules, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(7) (a) In addition to any mechanical ventilation required by rule 12, every permanent hospital shall be provided with adequate natural supply and exhaust ventilation to the open air by means of ventilators independent of the ventilators provided for any other space in the ship. The Central Government may exempt any ship from the requirement of this clause if it is satisfied that compliance therewith is unreasonable or impracticable in the circumstances.

“(b) Every hospital in every ship the keel of which is laid on or after the 1st January, 1967 and is intended to engage regularly, whether temporarily or permanently, on voyages within the Persian Gulf area, shall be provided with a means of air-conditioning of sufficient capacity to maintain 30° centigrade with 50 per cent relative humidity when the ambient conditions are 32° centigrade with 78 per cent relative humidity”.

8. For sub-rule (3) of rule 32 of the said rules, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(3) The medical cabinet shall be lighted by an electric light which shall be inside or immediately outside the cabinet and which will enable all the contents of the cabinet to be clearly seen in the absence of light from any other source and shall contain, in addition, an electric torch with provision for hanging it in a position where it will provide emergency lighting for the cabinet”.

9. After rule 38 of the said rules, the following shall be inserted, namely:—

“39. Penalties.—Any master or owner of a ship who commits a breach of any of the provisions of these rules, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and, if the breach is a continuing one, with further fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues”.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

New Delhi, the 4th January 1967

G.S.R. 62.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, and in supersession of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Education Department (Class II Posts) Recruitment Rules, 1961, the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Education Department (Class II Posts) Recruitment Rules, 1964 as amended by the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Education Department (Class II Posts) Recruitment (Amendment) Rules, 1964 the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to Class II posts in the Education Department of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Administration, namely:—

1. Short title and Commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Education Department (Class II Gazetted posts) Recruitment Rules, 1966.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts as specified in column 1 of the Schedule annexed hereto.

3. Number, classification and scale of pay.—The number of posts, their classification and the scale of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications.—The method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications and other matters connected therewith shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the Schedule aforesaid:

Provided that the maximum age limit specified in the Schedule in respect of direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other special categories in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

5. Disqualification.—(a) No person who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the posts; and

(b) no woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage shall be eligible for appointment to the post:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.
